Portrait Fuerstenhof

////////////////////////////////////

Portrait:

The Fuerstenhof belongs to the three leading hotels of lower saxony and looks back on a long and distingushed history. The historic baroque palce, dating back to 1670, comprises the core of the hotel, which today perfectly fuses the traditional and the modern. In February 2005 the Fuerstenhof was taken over by Althoff Hotels & Residences and extensively restored. Guests have at their disposal 68 comfortable rooms, five exclusive suites, six function rooms and a refurbished wellness area. The hotel is also home to the exclusive Michelin-starred restaurant „Endtenfang“, the second-best-rated restaurant in lower saxony. In addition the Taverna & Trattoria „Palio“ (16 Punkte Gault Millau) offers its guests culinary delights all around the refined ‚cucina casalinga‘.
