Portrait:

NBank is Lower Saxony's central investment and development bank. Our task is to promote economic progress in Lower Saxony. To this end we provide targeted support in the field for small and medium enterprises – with the view to improving their credit standing and competitiveness for the future. We offer made-to-measure advice and assistance, for foreign investors as well, and create the financial freedom of action they need for success. NBank has a good network. With our knowledge of European, national and local development instruments, we give you relevant advice.
