Portrait:

The founding of Wolfsburg is said to be one of the most important of the 20th century, and the city will be celebrating its 70th birthday next year. In only two generations it has been possible to develop a modern city renowned for its high quality of living which is today home to some 122.000 inhabitants.

In a highly regarded economic study Wolfsburg has this year been declared „Lower Saxony's Premier Business Location“ with excellent innovative drive, a high degree of dynamism and geared to the future (Zukunftsatlas 2007“, Prognos AG). The business location Wolfsburg has experienced changes which have also attracted interest way beyond the city itself and have proved to be an irrisistable magnet for investors and companies alike.

In accordance with its motto „Passion for Discovery“, the City of Wolfsburg never ceases to surprise not only with a vast array of art and cultural events, but also with exciting sporting highlights such as football matches in the Bundesliga and ice hockey in the DEL.
